

CH L'ENCLOS - 2019

POMEROL AOC

OVERVIEW

Possessors of Château Fonplégade in St-Emilion, Stephen and Denise Adams are also the owners of Château L'Enclos. Neighboring Château Petrus, Château L'Enclos is situated on the sunny western slope of the famed Pomerol plateau. In the late 19th century Pierre Larroucaud decided to combine his family's separate plots of vines and build a house surrounded by a winery and vat-room, near the hamlet of "Grand Moulinet". This new estate took its name from one of the original plots named "Enclos" (Enclosure). In 2007, after being passed down between ten generations of the Larroucaud family, one of Pomerol's oldest families, Château L'Enclos came under the ownership of the Adams. Mr and Mrs Adams own several other estates in France and USA, and as longstanding connoisseurs of Bordeaux's fine wines they were enchanted by the great potential of the terroir at L'Enclos, and seduced by the charms of the estate's quintessentially "Girondin" manor house.
